

Cloth & Kind Interiors | 1ST

This historic home in Detroit's New Center neighborhood was built in 1907. Although much of the home was still in its beautiful, original condition, the kitchen had gone through some horrible updates in the 1980s and needed to be reimagined. The clients were willing to take risks with color, and the end result features beautiful golden backsplash tile and hints of gray-blue throughout.

Kathleen McGovern | 2ND
Studio

Heller & Associates Design + | 3RD
Build, with Serba Interiors